HOUSE BILL No. 2112

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning family law and juvenile law.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. IC 31-9-2-28.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
- 2 AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
- 3 1, 2001]: Sec. 28.5. "Covenant marriage", for the purposes of
- 4 IC 31-11-4 and IC 31-11-4.5, means a marriage entered into by one
- 5 (1) male and one (1) female who:
- 6 (1) understand and agree that the marriage between them is
- 7 a lifelong relationship;
- 8 (2) have received counseling emphasizing the nature,
- 9 purposes, and responsibilities of marriage;
- 10 (3) understand and agree that only when there has been a
- 11 complete and total breach of the marital covenant may the
- 12 nonbreaching party seek a dissolution of the marriage; and
- 13 (4) declare their intent to enter into a covenant marriage on:
- 14 (A) their application for a marriage license under
- 15 IC 31-11-4-4; or
- 16 (B) a declaration of intent to designate their existing
- 17 marriage as a covenant marriage under IC 31-11-4.5-2.

1 including the license and certificate of marriage, in a book provided for
2 that purpose. This book is a public record.

3 (c) The state department of health shall develop uniform forms for 4 applications for marriage licenses, which must indicate whether the 5 individuals applying for the marriage license are declaring their
6 intent to enter into a covenant marriage. The state department of
7 health shall furnish these forms to the circuit court clerks. The state
8 department of health may periodically revise these forms.

9 (d) The state department of health shall require that the record of 10 marriage form developed under subsection (c) must include each
11 applicant's Social Security number which must be obtained unless the 12 applicant objects. The record of marriage form must specify that an
13 applicant is not required by law to reveal the applicant's Social Security
14 number as part of the marriage application. Any Social Security
15 numbers collected on the record of marriage form shall be kept
16 confidential and used only to carry out the purposes of the Title IV-D
17 program. A person who knowingly or intentionally violates
18 confidentiality regarding an applicant's Social Security ~~numbers~~
19 number as described in this subsection commits a Class A infraction.

20 (e) Notwithstanding subsection (a), a person who objects on 21 religious grounds is not required to:

- 22 (1) verify the application under subsection (a) by oath or
23 affirmation; or
24 (2) sign the acknowledgment described in subsection (a)(8).

25 However, before the clerk of the circuit court may issue a marriage
26 license to a member of the Old Amish Mennonite church, the bishop
27 of that member must sign a statement that the information in the 28 application is true.

29 (f) If a person objects on religious grounds to:

- 30 (1) verifying the application under subsection (a) by oath or 31 affirmation; or
32 (2) signing the acknowledgment described in subsection (a)(8);

33 the clerk of the circuit court shall indicate that fact on the application
34 for a marriage license.

35 SECTION 3. IC 31-11-4-15 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
36 FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]: Sec. 15. Each marriage
37 license must have two (2) certificates attached to the license. The state
38 department of health shall prescribe a uniform ~~form forms~~ for these
39 certificates. One (1) certificate must be marked "Original" and one (1)
40 certificate must be marked "Duplicate". Each certificate must contain 41 the following:

- 42 (1) For individuals not declaring their marriage a covenant

(5) develop an informational pamphlet entitled "Covenant Marriage Law", which outlines in sufficient detail the consequences of entering into a covenant marriage. The state department of health shall make this informational pamphlet available upon request to any priest, minister, rabbi, clerk of the Religious Society of Friends, clergyman of any religious sect, or marriage counselor.

SECTION 5. IC 31-11-4.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]:

Chapter 4.5. Covenant Marriage

Sec. 1. (a) Individuals applying for a marriage license under IC 31-11-4 may, at the time of filing their application for a marriage license, file a declaration of intent to contract a covenant marriage consisting of the following documents:

(1) A recitation to the following effect, with the signatures of both parties witnessed by a notary public:

A COVENANT MARRIAGE

"We do solemnly declare that marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman who agree to live together as husband and wife for so long as they both may live. We have chosen each other carefully and disclosed to one another everything that could adversely affect the decision to enter into this marriage. We have received premarital counseling on the nature, purposes, and responsibilities of marriage. We have read the "Covenant Marriage Law" informational pamphlet, and we understand that a covenant marriage is for life. If we experience marital difficulties, we commit ourselves to take all reasonable efforts to preserve our marriage, including marital counseling.

With full knowledge of what this commitment means, we do hereby declare that our marriage will be bound by Indiana law on covenant marriages, and we promise to love, honor, and care for one another as husband and wife

(2) An affidavit by the parties that they have received premarital counseling from a priest, minister, rabbi, clerk of the Religious Society of Friends, a clergyman of any religious sect, or a marriage counselor that includes a discussion of the seriousness of covenant marriage, communication of the fact that a covenant marriage is a commitment for life, a discussion of the obligation to seek marital counseling in times of marital difficulties, and a discussion of the exclusive grounds for obtaining a judgment of legal separation or for legally dissolving a covenant marriage.

(3) A notarized attestation, signed by the counselor and attached to or included in the parties' affidavit, confirming that the parties were counseled as to the nature and purpose of the marriage and the grounds for termination of the marriage and acknowledging that the counselor provided to the parties the informational pamphlet entitled "Covenant Marriage Law" developed by the state department of health.

(4) If one (1) or both of the parties are minors, the consent required by IC 31-11-2.

(b) The recitation required under subsection (a)(1) shall be prepared in duplicate originals, one (1) of which shall be retained by the parties and the other of which shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court and attached to the duplicate marriage certificate when filed with the clerk of the circuit court.

Sec. 2. (a) A married couple may execute a declaration of intent to designate their marriage as a covenant marriage (as defined in IC 31-9-2-28.5) to be governed by the laws governing covenant marriages. The declaration consists of the following documents:

(1) A recitation to the following effect, with the signatures of both parties witnessed by a notary public:

A COVENANT MARRIAGE

"We do solemnly declare that marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman who agree to live together as husband and wife for so long as they both may live.
