1 provide written notification to the lieutenant governor that the 2 business seeks membership and that the business meets the 3 requirements of subsection (d).

4 (d) A business is eligible for membership in the coalition if the 5 business creates a process that allows a senior citizen to have an 6 alternative payment date for all amounts due to the business that 7 does not conflict or pose an undue hardship with the date the 8 senior citizen receives payments from the Social Security
9 Administration, a pension, or any other form of retirement income.
10 The alternative payment date process must allow a senior citizen 11 to elect to use the alternative payment date process by contacting 12 the business.

13 (e) A business that creates an alternative payment date process 14 must:

15 (1) notify each senior citizen who is required to make 16 payments to the business that the alternative payment date
17 process has been created; and

18 (2) provide information to the senior citizen on using the 19 alternative payment date process.

20 (f) The business must allow a senior citizen to elect to use the 21 alternative payment date process if the senior citizen contacts the 22 business and requests to use the alternative payment date process.

23 Sec. 5. (a) The lieutenant governor shall compile a list of the 24 members of the coalition.

25 (b) Not later than July 1 and December 1 of each year, the 26 lieutenant governor shall publish the list of members of the 27 coalition.

28 Sec. 6. A member of the coalition may display and use in 29 advertising the following phrase:

30 "Member of the Coalition to Support Indiana Seniors".
