Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that a foster home must notify the Division of Family and Children if: (1) a foster child less than 16 years of age, while living in a foster home, engages in or is the victim of sexual contact; (2) a foster child, while living in a foster home, is charged with, convicted of, or is the victim of certain sex crimes or is charged with or adjudicated as a juvenile for having committed certain acts that would be sex crimes if committed by an adult; or (3) the foster home learns the foster child, before placement in the foster home, had engaged in or been the victim of sexual contact or certain other sex crimes. The bill specifies what information must be provided to the division. It also requires the Division to share this information with former and current licensees and imposes certain confidentiality requirements.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This legislation requires minor modifications to an existing reporting requirement. Division staff feel that this will not increase program administration cost nor staffing requirements.
