Whereas, the campus has expanded throughout the years and now includes three dormitories, a cafeteria, a gymnasium, a music building/chapel, and an administration/classroom building;

Whereas, the Indiana Academy is a coeducational boarding school at the senior high school level that features a work/study program in order to teach students the value of positive work ethics and the development of spiritual, mental, vocational, social, and physical aspects of the students;

Whereas, since the school has a work/study program, students have several opportunities to be employed on or off the Indiana Academy campus;

Whereas, the school is run by the Indiana Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and is fully accredited by the Seventh-day Adventists Board of Regents, the Indiana State Department of Education, and the National Council for Private School Accreditation;

Whereas, the Superintendent of Schools is Archie Moore; the Principal is Perry F. Pollman; and the members of the Board of Education are Clayton Farwell, President and Archie Moore, Secretary; Steve Anderson, Jesus Beltre, Barbara Bryant, Sylvia Budd, George Crumley, Kathy Griffin, Mike Hackleman, Marla Haynes, Marlin Heinlein, Ron Kelly, Bonnie Meyer, Orville Ortiz, Mary Perkins, Perry F.
