Summary of Legislation: This bill allows the judge of the Owen circuit court to appoint a full-time magistrate to replace a court-appointed referee. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the Commission on Courts.)

Effective Date: July 1, 2004.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Owen Circuit Court currently is permitted under Small Claims Rule 14 of the Indiana Rules of Court to appoint a small claims referee. Currently, this small claims referee receives $47,500 in salary, plus benefits, from the state General Fund. Under this bill, if the Owen Circuit Court is permitted to appoint a magistrate, it would no longer be permitted to appoint a small claims referee.

The added costs to the state General Fund would be $28,888 when including the incremental increase in salary and fringe benefits. The current salary of a magistrate is $72,000. These fringe benefits are based on a percentage of the person's salary.
