SENATE RESOLUTION

MADAM PRESIDENT:

I offer the following resolution and move its adoption:

A SENATE RESOLUTION honoring Senator Glenn Howard upon his retirement from the Indiana State Senate.

Whereas, Senator Howard was first elected to the Indiana State Senate to represent Senate District 33 and the people of Marion County in 1992;

Whereas, Senator Howard has been an active community leader known for his vigilant and vocal advocacy throughout his 18 year tenure and is considered a champion of the less fortunate;

Whereas, Senator Howard worked hard to bring employment opportunities to his constituency, was never afraid to raise an issue which impacted his people, and was outspoken in his advocacy. He passionately chaired the Glenn Howard Junior Golf Outing for Youth and the Marbles Luncheon;

Whereas, Senator Howard has served on numerous legislative standing committees and interim committees during his tenure, covering a wide range of topics. He most recently served as ranking Minority member on the Senate Commerce Public Policy & Interstate Cooperation Committee and also as a member on the Economic Development & Technology, Corrections, Criminal & Civic Matters, and Insurance & Financial Institutions committees and is a member of
