Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill has the following provisions:

- (1) Requires a court to specify in a child support order which parent of a child may claim the child as a dependent for purposes of federal and state taxes.
- (2) Establishes factors the court must consider in determining which parent may claim the child as a dependent.
- (3) Requires a court that specifies that the noncustodial parent of a child may claim the child as a dependent to order the custodial parent of the child to take all actions necessary to release the custodial parent's claim to the exemption in the manner required under federal law.
- (4) Requires a court to include in a court order that a parent who is ordered to pay child support may only claim the child as a dependent if the parent has paid the parent's child support for the calendar year for which the parent is ordered to claim the child as a dependent by December 31 of that year.
- (5) Provides that a prosecuting attorney or private attorney who contracts or agrees to undertake activities required under Title IV-D is not required to mediate, resolve, or litigate a dispute between the parties relating to the assignment of the right to claim a child as a dependent for federal and state tax purposes.
